The new Beneficiary must be a "member of the family" of the current designated Beneficiary, as defined by Section 529 of the Internal Revenue Code. If the new designated Beneficiary is NOT a "member of the family," you must instead complete an Iowa Advisor 529 Plan Withdrawal Request Form and an Iowa Advisor 529 Plan new Account Application, as the transaction will be considered a non qualified withdrawal that is subject to income tax and a 10% additional tax on earnings.

Choose only one of the following three Investment Strategies

With the exception of Single Fund Investment Options, only one option may be selected for an account.

1 ■ Age-Based Investment

Contributions will be allocated to the appropriate Age-Based Option corresponding to your Beneficiary's current age unless you indicate a hypothetical age upon which contributions will be invested. Age-Based Options are designed for college savings and may not be appropriate for K-12 time horizons.
